

Malabar Literature Festival is a cultural get-together and celebration of multiple histories, legacies, journeys, languages, literature, and arts of the individuals and communities in Malabar. The festival brings together distant lands and littorals like Kayalpattinam, Gujarat, Lakshadweep, Andaman and Nicobar, Hadhramaut, Malaysia, and Africa, which have been historically associated with Malabar from time immemorial.

Expecting a footfall of literary and cultural enthusiasts, with talks, debates and open forums that explore literature through the vantage of Malabar, the event also explores the diverse life worlds of Mappila and Dalit subalterns.
